HORRIBLE AFFAIR.—The most horrible affair that has occurred in New Orleans within our recollection has just been brought to light.

A diabolical attempt has been made to poison Col. T. L. Lemley's family, and a number of visitors whom he had with him at dinner on Tuesday.

Col. Lemley's cook, a colored woman, is suspected of having administered the deadly drug by putting it in Charlotte Russe. She has been arrested, with a colored man and a colored boy who were engaged in preparing the dinner, all slaves of Col. Lemley.

The dinner was given at Col. Lemley's house on Jackson street, near Annunciation, in honor of a young gentleman from Mississippi, Dr. Hunt, receiving his diploma.

At one o'clock yesterday morning, all who participated in the Charlotte Russe were taken ill, and all the symptoms showed that arsenic had been administered.

About the same time Mrs. and Miss McKay, friends of the family, who had not been to dinner, but who had been sent some of the confectionery, were also taken sick.

At two o'clock this morning a little boy about five years of age, died, and we heard just before going to press, that Mrs. McKay was dead.

The following are the names of those who were poisoned and their condition this forenoon. The Youngs are from Jackson, Miss. M. J. H. Phelps is an ex-assistant Alderman of this city.

Mr. T. L. Lemley—will probably recover.

Mr. Lemley, in a dangerous condition.

Miss Julia Lemley, dangerous condition.

Miss Louisa Lemley, no hope.

Mrs. Young, will recover.

Miss Sallie Young, will recover.

Miss Emma Young, very dangerous condition.

Miss Sallie Hall, will recover.

Willie Young, 5 years, dead.

Four servants, one woman and three children, will probably recover.

Mrs. Jas. H. Phelps, will recover.

Miss J. De Boulnez, of Baton Rouge, will recover.

Mr. Henry Phelps, will recover.

Mrs. McKay, Miss McKay and Miss Emma Searls, will recover.

A Bad Report.—We regret having a bad report to make this morning in regard to the sufferers by the diabolical poisoning at Col. Lemley's, on Tuesday last. We learned from Dr. Fisher, last night, that Miss Emma Young, is dead; Mrs. Lemley was sinking rapidly, and that he could not hope to see her alive this morning.

He reports Col. Lemley improving; Miss Julia Lemley, improving; Miss Louisa Lemley, improving; Mrs. Young, improving; Miss Sallie Young, convalescent; Miss Sally Hall, convalescent; negro woman Nancy is better; the three negro children are well.

Mrs. Phelps and Miss De Boulnez are better, but Mr. Henry Phelps was not improving.—N. O. True Delta, April 5.

HOW TO GROW PEACHES EVERY YEAR.

The following, by a correspondent of the Ohio Cultivator, is worthy a trial by all lovers of delicious fruit:

Procure your trees grafted upon the wild plum stock. The tree partakes of the nature of the plum, being hardy, and will never winter kill, and putting out late in the spring, will never be injured by the frost, and it is a certain preventative against the workings of the peach grub, while the natural lifetime of the tree is beyond that of a man; so you may depend upon peaches every year, and for a long period of time, without the destructive influences attending the growth of the common peach. They can be obtained at from fifty to seventy-five cents per tree, and you had better pay five times the amount, than not obtain them, and be certain of peaches every year. Try it, and our word for it, you will be satisfied with the result.

AN ADVENTURE.—A boy who had been brought up in a log house in Illinois, which of course was not much encumbered with useless furniture, was one day sent on an errand to a neighbor's house where several articles of more fashionable contrivance had just been received from the Eastward, and among other things, a looking glass which was suspended opposite the door.—The boy had never seen his own face; and when, on entering the house the first object which presented itself to his view was a dirty looking phiz, surrounded by long, shaggy yellow hair &c., he was so frightened that, without further ceremony, he ran home as fast as his legs could carry him exclaiming, 'Daddy, daddy, I've seen the devil!'

'Landlord, you have done me too much honor—you let me sleep among big bugs last night.'

'Oh, don't be too modest, my dear lodger, doubt not they have some of your own blood in their veins.'

JUDGE'S SAW-LOG.—In the village of W— lived a man who had once been a Judge of the county, and was known all over by the name of Judge L—. He kept a store and sawmill, and was sure to by have the best of a bargain on his side, which means he gained an ample competence, and some did not hesitate to call him the "biggest rascal in the world." He was very conceited withal, and used to delight in bragging of his business capacity when any one was near to listen. One rainy day quite a number were seated around the stove in the store, and he began, as usual, to tell of his great bargains, and finally wound up with.

"Nobody ever cheated me, nor they can't, neither."

"Judge," said an old man in the company, "I've cheated you more'n you ever did me."

"How so?" asked the Judge.

"If you'll promise you won't go to law about it, nor do nothing, I'll tell you, or else I won't; you are too much of a law character for me."

"Let's hear! let's hear!" cried half a dozen voices at once. "We'll hear you out of it—go on."

"I'll promise," said the Judge, "and treat in the bargain, if you have."

"Well, do you remember that wagon you robbed me of?"

"I never robbed you of any wagon," exclaimed the Judge, "I only got my own!"

"Well, I made up my mind to have it back, and—"

"But you never did!" cried the Judge.

"Yes I did, with interest, too!"

"How thundered the now enraged Judge."

"Well, you see, Judge, I sold you, one day, a very nice pine log, and bargained with you for a lot more. Well, that log I stole off your pile, down by your mill, the night before and next day I sold it to you. That night I drew it back home, and sold it to you the next day; and so I kept on until you bought your own log of me twenty-seven times!"

"That's a lie!" cried the mad judge, running to his book, and examining his log account; "you never sold me twenty-seven logs the same measurement."

"I know it," said the vender of logs "By drawing it back and forth the end wore off until it was only ten feet long—just fourteen feet shorter than it was the first time you bought it; and when it got so short, I drew it home and worked it up into shingles, and then I concluded I had got my money back—and in my pocket."

The exclamation of the judge was drowned in the shouts of the bystanders, and the log drawer found the door without the promised treat. To see a mad man you have only to ask the judge if he was ever shaved.

REVOLVING BRACELET.—A New York correspondent describes a piece of jewelry which is destined to make a sensation among the "female persuasion." It is a strap bracelet of fine link chain, of a quaint Venetian pattern. The center, set in a circular head, is a cluster of diamonds, having an outside waving edge of black enamel, divided into twelve compartments, each nestling a dazzling brilliant. Between the edge and the central glory is a vine of fine gold, in what sailors term "round turns," each turn embracing one of this cluster of diamonds, and from this vine buds of fine diamonds burst into light. But in the centre of all are two wheels, set in black enamel ground, each having eight arms, and each arm twelve diamonds. These wheels turn on a common axle, the hub being the largest diamond of all, and by an ingenious piece of machinery which is wound up with a key, these wheels are made to revolve in opposite directions for two hours. Imagine the effect of this pyrotechnic display in a brilliantly lighted saloon, with a fair plump arm beneath it, if you can. What admiration it would command from the men; what envyings and heart-burnings it would excite in the women.

'Pray my lord,' said a gentleman to a rather whimsical judge, 'what is the distinction between law and equity courts?' 'Very little in the end,' replied his lordship, 'they only differ so far as time is concerned. At common law you are done for at once; in equity you are not so easily disposed of; the one is prussic acid, the other laudanum.'

Time wears slippers of list, and his tread is noiseless. The days comes softly dawning, one after another; they creep in at the windows; their fresh morning air is grateful to the lips that pant for it; their music is sweet to the ears that listen to it, a whole life of days has possession of the citadel, and time has taken us for its own.'

'Did I understand you to call me a puppy, sir?'

'I did call you a puppy.'

'Lucky for you: the insult is too small to notice; but if you had called me dog—an old dog I would have knocked you down.'

THE GREATEST DUEL ON RECORD.
—An old Mississippian furnishes the following to the Woodville (Miss.) Republican:

The famous duel, in which forty or more gentlemen were engaged, in 1828, is still remembered in Natchez. Col. Jim Bowie, the famous fighter and inventor of the knife which bears his name, used to spend a great deal of his time in Natchez. He was challenged by a gentleman of Alexandria, La., whose friends, to the number of twenty or more, accompanied him to Natchez to see fair play, knowing Bowie was a desperate man and had his own friends about him. All parties went upon the field. The combatants took their places in the center, separated from their friends in the rear far enough not to endanger them with their balls. Behold the battle array thus:

Twenty armed Louisianians fifty yards behind their champion and his seconds and surgeons, and opposite them, as far behind Bowie and his seconds and surgeons, twenty armed Mississippians. Behold the heights of Natchez thronged with spectators, and a steamer in the river rounded to, its decks black with passengers, watching with a deep interest. The plan of fight was to exchange shots twice with pistols, and to close with knives, Bowie being armed with his own terrible weapon. At the first fire both parties escaped. At the second the Louisianian was to quick and took advantage of Bowie, who waited the word. At this Bowie's seconds cried "foul play!" and shot the Louisianian dead. The second of the latter instantly killed the slayer of his principal. Bowie drove his knife into this man. The surgeons now crossed blades, while, with loud battle cries, came on the two parties of friends, the light of battle in their eyes. In a moment the whole number were engaged in a fearless conflict. Dirks, pistols, and knives were used with fatal effect, until one party drove the other from the field. I do not know how many were killed and wounded in all, but it was a dreadful slaughter. Bowie fought like a lion, but fell covered with wounds. For months he lingered at the Mansion House before he fully recovered.

A WEALTHY BRIDGEPORT WIDOW MARRIES A NEGRO.—The New Haven News gives the particulars of an amalgamation case which occurred in Bridgeport, Connecticut:

A handsome buxom widow of a late influential and prominent merchant of that city, who has figured conspicuously among the "upper tendom," since the death of her husband, and might reasonably aspire to the most honorable alliance in the way of a second marriage, has so far been deluded and carried away by the current fanaticism of a certain class of men in New England, who are annually invited to lecture among us on the "beauties of amalgamation," that she has actually taken to her embraces, as her "ebony lord," a negro laborer of that city as black as the ace of spades. Her friends and connections, who are most numerous and respectable, are of course in the greatest fever of excitement and trepidation at the unfortunate occurrence, and are giving out that she is "insane," that her mind has been unbalanced by spiritualism, but her business transactions show that she has "method" in her madness, and that her lavish expenditure upon the negro were made with a view to the consummation of a purpose long percolated and uppermost in her own mind.

LIBERAL SUBSCRIPTION FOR THE POPE.
The citizens of Dublin, Ireland, have at one effort contributed $70,000 as an offering to the Pope. It is estimated that Ireland will altogether send to his Holiness more than $1,000,000 as a defence fund. The English Catholics, and a good many English Protestants, too, have begun a subscription for the same purpose, which has already reached more than $100,000. The Duke of Norfolk has subscribed $20,000 and Mr. Beresford Hope (a Protestant) has added $5,000 as his "mite."

'Dick, why don't you turn the buffalo robe t'other side out? the hair side is the warmest,' Bahl Tom, don't you suppose the animal knew how to wear his own hide?'

'That was a horrible affair—the murder of Dean, and the sealing of his remains in a tin box! 'What Dean?' asked a half dozen voices at once. 'Why, Sar Dean, of course,' was the pungent reply.

A wife, whose husband recently started to visit the city of Washington, is represented to have said—"Now, my dear don't mix with public officers in Washington—especially with their wives!"

We have all heard of asking for bread and receiving a stone, but a young gentleman may be considered as still worse treated when he asks for a young lady's hand and gets her father's foot.

THE Overland Mail Stage of last Monday took away 4,809 letters, and 6 through passengers, viz:—General Kibbe, Miss Maxwell, E. L. Maxwell, W. E. Lewis, W. J. Begger and William Meek.

THE proprietors of the French paper, Le Phare, published in San Francisco, have been held to bail in $500 each, to appear before the Court of Sessions, to answer a charge of libel preferred against them by Julien Chemon.

SUIT COMPROMISED.—The Sierra Citizen says that the important and expensive suit, Manahattan Company vs. Eureka and Excelsior Companies, at Wet Ravine, has been compromised by the defendants paying plaintiffs $22,500. It is stated that $35,000 has been expended in costs by each contestant. The attorney, Courts, and witnesses, get $70,000. It was time to compromise. At this rate, the plaintiffs lose $12,500.

GRADING ON THE SAN FRANCISCO AND MARYSVILLE RAILROAD.—The three miles of grading upon that portion of the line of the San Francisco and Marysville Railroad running through Sutter county, was completed on Saturday. The subcontractor for this portion of the work is Thomas Sherwood. He informs us that the road is now graded down to the tule lands. Of these lands there are about four miles on the course of the line. At present they are too much overflowed to admit of being graded. There are now ready for the laying of the rails, seventeen miles in Sutter county and ten in Solano, making twenty-seven miles in all. The distance between Marysville and Suisun City is sixty-seven and a half miles. It is expected that the entire grading will be finished between these two points by the first of July next. We wish we could bear as favorable reports concerning the rolling stock and iron for the road as we have its grading. But in fairness, we will wait the report of the Directors, which we believe is promised for the 10th of this month.—Marysville Appeal.

"ON OFFICIAL BUSINESS."—The Coloma Times of Saturday publishes the following as a veritable document emanating from an officer of El Dorado county: "Mr Taylor Dr Sospital Coloma Sir the barror Joseph Bory having met with an axident he is not abel to work and has ben sick for a long time you air requested to take nim under your cair Justice of the Peace Tounship"

APPOINTMENT.—It is reported that Major W. H. Harvey has been appointed Commissioner of Immigration at San Francisco, vice A. G. Morgan deceased.

Meteorological.

After being favored for only a few days with pleasant, fair, warm and agreeable weather, we are again, visited with a cold damp atmosphere, attended with high winds and some rain. It commenced raining and storming yesterday, sufficiently, to make it very disagreeable out of doors. We feel a slight apprehension that, if the present state of the atmosphere continues, that, it will operate very detrimental to the early crops; causing a large portion of them to fall down, so, that, they can not be harvested. By-the-Bye, as we said last week, work hands appear unusually scarce just now in this part of the country labor is in greater demand than anything else, and commands a better price.

Grave Yard.

We are authorised, to say that Mr. C. F. Reed is willing to donate a few acres of Land, located in a very beautiful grove about one mile west of town, for a Burying Ground for Knight's Landing and vicinity.

We think the Citizens of this place should get together immediately and devise some plan upon which to act in the premises.

The Land should be fenced in, laid out in lots, and deeded in trust to some ones appointed as Trustees for that purpose. A Town Meeting ought to be called specially to take the proper steps in the initiative. It should be done soon.

Obsequies.

The last sad rites were performed over the remains of our much esteemed and beloved friend J. H. UPDEGRAFF on last Thursday. The funeral procession was by far the largest one ever attended in this place.

The Rev. Mr. R. R. Dunlap, delivered a very pretty and appropriate funeral discourse which was listened to by the bereaved relatives and sorrowing friends with the most profound attention, every sentence of which appeared to carry home with it some great and consoling truth from which they might take consolation.

County Court.

A DOUBT ABOUT BRODERICK'S WILL. The New York Herald of 8th April has the following:

"There is a rumor that the will which has been published as that of late Senator Broderick of San Francisco, turns out not to be genuine. We have not heard that there has been any attempt as yet to prove it before the Surrogate; but it is stated that when such attempt is made, its validity will be disputed by two nephews of the deceased, who have set their claim to the property. What purports to be the will is dated New York, January, A. D. 1859, at which time, we believe, Mr. Broderick was here. Who had the custody of the alleged will, or furnished it to the newspapers, does not appear. The document struck us at the time of its publication as very extraordinary."

STRIPPING ELOPEMENTS OF THEIR ROMANCE.—The Baltimore Clipper says that the new code of Maryland provides "that if any person belonging to this State shall go out of this State, and there marry with any person belonging to this State, without license or publication, each of the said parties on conviction, shall be fined one hundred dollars."

BY THE PONY EXPRESS.

The Great Fight between Heenan and Sayers.

Thirty-nine Rounds Fought—The Fight a Drawn One.

From the Union's Telegraphic Report. [From the London Daily News, of April 18.]

The long projected fight between Heenan and Sayers took place yesterday.

By four o'clock in the morning, the visitors to the scene of action were conveyed from the London Bridge Station. They alighted near Fynn Barrough Station.

The fight lasted two hours and thirty minutes during which thirty-nine rounds were fought.

Sayers drew the first blood, and Heenan claimed the first knock down blow.

Sayers did not show any signs of punishment, but his right arm was much injured by his attempts to ward off Heenan's tremendous blows.

Heenan once got the champion's head under his arm, and was about to strangle him.

The referees subsequently quitted the ring and declared a draw battle; but two or three more skirmishes were made, Heenan seeming indifferent as to whether he hit Sayers or his second.

The crowd of people at the fight was immense.

Long before four o'clock, Tuesday morning, London Bridge Station was literally deluged by spectators to the fight.

At half past four, precisely the special train was dispatched, containing about 1,000 persons, and after traveling for twenty-one hours and fifteen minutes, arrived at place called Ark, where all the people got out of the train, and after crossing several fields and ditches, arrived at a snug meadow, in which a snug ring was formed.

Precisely at seven o'clock and thirty minutes the two men entered the ring, when the Benecia Boy approached Sayers and shook him warmly by the hand.

First Round.—Sayers let out with his left, and caught Heenan in the mouth. Upon a second feint, he landed a "significant" on Heenan's nose, when the latter closed, got hold of Sayers by the neck, and Sayers fell.

Second Round.—Heenan, after a few moments' playing off with his antagonist, lay on with his left and landed a blow on Sayers' mouth, closed and threw him.

Third Round.—Heenan caught Sayers on the mouth, the latter again falling.

Fourth Round.—Heenan went up shot out tremendously with his left, and hit Sayer again in the mouth, and sent him spinning to the ground.

On the fifth and sixth rounds, Sayers fell without any punishment being given on either side.

Seventh Round.—Sayers landed a fearful blow on Heenan's left cheek, cutting it open. Heenan's left eye became almost immediately in darkness. This round lasted twelve minutes, and ended by Heenan knocking Sayers down with a blow on the mouth.

Eighth Round.—Heenan shot out with his left, but was beautifully stopped by Sayers' right. After much parleying on both sides, Heenan caught Sayers on the mouth, and caused the claret to flow profusely. This round lasted twenty minutes, and ended with Heenan knocking Sayers down.

Ninth Round.—Heenan went up to Sayers, and caught him on the mouth, and sent him to mother earth. Betting, which had been up to this time two to one on Sayers, rose to even; Heenan having the call.

Tenth Round.—Heenan closed and threw Sayers heavily.

Eleventh Round.—Sayers struck Heenan on the mouth and fell.

Twelfth Round.—Heenan went up to Sayers and knocked him down, which he also did in the thirteenth round.

Fourteenth Round.—Heenan struck Sayers on both sides of the mouth, then claret and Sayers fell.

Fifteenth Round.—Heenan caught Sayers on the mouth with his left, and sent him spinning round, and with his right caught him on the jaw, Sayers going down.

Sixteenth Round.—After a few exchanges, Heenan shot out and knocked Sayers down. Seventeenth Round was a similar round to this.

Eighteenth Round.—Sayers did much towards closing Heenan's right eye and fell.

Nineteenth and Twentieth Rounds.—Closed by Heenan throwing Sayers in both instances.

Twenty-first and Twenty-second Rounds. Heenan went up to Sayers and knocked him down. There was loud cheering and betting four to one on Heenan.

Twenty-third Round.—After some severe hitting on both sides Heenan's face became much disfigured. They closed, and Sayers had a throw recorded in his favour.

Twenty-fourth Round.—Heenan again knocked Sayers down.

Twenty-fifth Round.—Sayers caught Heenan a poser on the nose, the claret flying about. The two clinched and fell, Sayers under.

Twenty-sixth Round.—Sayers landed a severe blow on Heenan's cheek, and fell.

Twenty-seventh Round.—Heenan followed Sayers about the ring. There was slight counter-hitting. The former landed another blow on Sayers' mouth, and he fell.

Twenty-eighth Round.—This was a similar round to the last—Sayers falling.

Twenty-ninth Round.—Heenan with his left caught Sayers in the mouth and brought him to the ground.

Thirtieth Round.—Sayers caught Heenan in the nose; the two closed, and Sayers again fell.

Thirty-first.—Heenan landed a severe blow on Sayers' mouth; the two closed and fell, Sayers under.

Thirty-second.—In this round Heenan retired to his corner, and seemed rather reluctant at calling out Sayers, looking at him anxiously. Sayers entered with his left, and gave a telling blow on Heenan's frontispiece. The betting was even on Sayers.

At this time it was evident that daylight was becoming almost of no avail to Heenan, as both his eyes were nearly closed, and his face altogether presented a frightful appearance.

Thirty-third.—Heenan landed a crasher on Sayers' mouth, and sent him spinning to the ground.

It was now plain to be seen that Sayers' right arm was not of much avail to him, from the repeated stopping blows. Heenan's had also become much swollen from the repeated use he had made of it.

Thirty-fourth Round.—Sayers sent out rapidly twice, giving it to Heenan both on the nose. Heenan, however, followed Sayers, struck him heartily on the mouth, and sent him to the ground.

Thirty-fifth Round.—The two soon closed, and Sayers getting hold of Heenan by the neck, bit him severely over the left eye.

Thirty-sixth Round.—The two closed, and Sayers was thrown.

Thirty-seventh Round.—Heenan gave Sayers one in the mouth, the latter falling.

Thirty-eighth Round.—Sayers closed and fell. Heenan gave Sayers one on the head when he had almost reached the ground, which raised a question of foul play, but it was not preserved in, it being considered an accident.

Thirty-ninth Round.—Heenan got his arm around Sayers' neck, and to all appearances was strangling him. Cries of "Let him go!" were raised. Heenan still stuck to his hold, and the ring was broken. The greatest confusion prevailed; the umpire was carried away from the ring, and the fight was permanently brought to a close, neither having been declared the winner.

The contest lasted two hours and eight minutes.

From Carson City.

CARSON CITY, (Utah,) May 9th. The news of the Indian massacre at Miller's station, at Big Bend of the Carson river, night before last, created great excitement. A company was organized here last night numbering thirty mounted men, under command of Major Omsby, who left here this morning at 8 o'clock for the scene of action.

By an express this morning, we learn that the Indians have fortified themselves at Ragtown, and threaten a big fight. Every thing in the shape of firearms, from Allen's pepper boxes to United States muskets are in requisition.

A negro and a white man have been accused of selling ammunition to the Indians for some time past, knowing their intentions. The negro is now under arrest.

A company has been organized at Genoa, under J. Cradlebaugh.

The women and children have all left the river, and are at Silver City, which place is fortified.

At King's Ranch, about two miles from here, a man was shot this morning. It seems that one Potter jumped a ranch belonging to one Carson, and took possession of Carson's cabin. Carson went and ordered him off. Words ensued, when Carson shot Potter through the abdomen—wound thought to be mortal.

No arrest.

2 P. M.—A white man has just been arrested for selling powder to the Indians. His name is Jones. He had over one hundred pounds concealed in his cabin, about one mile from town.—Sac. Bee.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The Supervisors of Colusa county, on the 7th, awarded James G. Plummer, of this city, the contract to build the new Court House and Jail.

BIRTHS.

In Knight's Landing, May 6th, the wife of D. W. Edison, of a son.

DIED.

In Knight's Landing, May 9th, 1860, J. H. UPDEGRAFF, aged 41 years lacking one day.

He was born in Yorktown, Jefferson county, Ohio, May the 10th, 1819. From thence he removed to Macomb, McDonough County, Illinois, in 1840. From which place he emigrated to this State in 1849.

Deceased was an old and highly esteemed Resident of California, he had filled some important positions of honor and trust within his adopted State. He possessed a remarkably mild disposition, united with a naturally kind heart and most urbane manners, which rendered him both an agreeable and pleasing companion, as well as one of the very best of neighbors—one of its finest Citizens. For honesty, high sense of honor and general probity he was proverbial. Hence all that knew him loved and respected him. He was one of the best and kindest of husbands—the most indulgent and affectionate of Fathers.

In his Death, we have lost one of our most useful and amiable Citizens.

We tender to his family and relatives our most heartfelt sympathy and condolence in their deep affliction and grief.

A good man, to earth the noblest gift of God is gone—his place is now an empty dark void But his spirit no doubt is happy and free In Heaven beyond this vale of misery.

MINT STATISTICS.—Last week, 14,787 ounces of gold bullion, worth about $280,000, and 4,608 ounces of silver bullion were deposited in the mint; $500,000 were coined in double eagles and $10,000 in half dollars. Of the gold deposits, $160,000 was in refined gold.

BALLOON TRIP TO EUROPE.—A communication has been laid before the Boston Board of Aldermen, from John Wise, of Lancaster, Pa., and John La Mountain, of Troy, N. Y., proposing to make aerial voyages to London and Paris, the one to start in May, and the other on the 4th of July next, provided the city will pay the expense, which is estimated by La Mountain at $4000 and Wise at $6000.

THE sum of $400,000 in refined gold bars were shipped on the Golden Gate on Saturday by private parties.

"OLD MANUELA.—The death of the venerable Manuela Pinto, at half Moon Bay, at the remarkable age of one hundred and twenty years, calls up some curious reflections as to what wonderful changes have taken place in the world during her lifetime. When she was born, most of the great American patriots who achieved our national independence, were children, including Washington, Jefferson, Patrick Henry, John Adams, John Hancock and others; and some were not yet born. She was a woman in middle life when the Declaration of Independence was signed, having been at that time 36 years old; was 43 at the Declaration of Peace with England in 1783, and an old woman when Washington died in 1799. At the time of our last war with England, of whom only venerable relics now remain, Manuela had long passed the age to which womanhood may expect to arrive. If she was of Spanish birth, she has witnessed changes in Europe not less wonderful than those of the Western world. How many Kings, Queens and Emperors has she outlived, what countless armies whose tread shook the earth, and whose terrible approach made empires tremble, have crumbled to dust in her day! Bonaparte was born, rose to power, convulsed Europe, died, and his name became a thing of the past—a matter of history—in her lifetime. Truly, she may have been called "a relic of antiquity."—Alta California.

DOWNIEVILLE ROUTE TO WASHOE.—A correspondent of the San Francisco, Bulletin, and who has recently traveled the route from Downieville to Virginia City, submits the following:

As I am about through, I will here make some general observations as to this route. In dry weather it is a very good one; in wet and snowy times it cannot help to be as bad as any. At the same time it is a circuitous road, and you ride many miles out of your way by going it. There is plenty of accommodation along the road, and as good as one can expect. The nearest stopping places are those to which the train takes you. Smith, with whom I remonstrated for so doing, gave as a reason that he could not get feed for his animals anywhere else. This I regard, at the present time, as a poor excuse, as, for instance, in the case above mentioned he could have easily had the food for animals transported two miles to where there was good quarters rather than let his passengers sleep in the barn. The traveling public can always stand this when they cannot better themselves; but when they can they always want it. Taking all things into consideration, I don't see any advantages to be gained by coming this route, excepting by those living in the extreme northern counties, certainly none to parties from the more southern counties. Your freight costs 30 cents a pound by the express; 25 cents otherwise. Mules to ride across cost $30. This, as they say, is for "accommodation." But this, let me remark, now I am about through and can judge, is cheap enough. You must recollect they run the risk of not having passengers back; besides it is a hard trip on them. Within two days two trains of some thirty to forty mules returned to Downieville, and with only some eight or ten passengers. You will observe that but few are returning.

THE KNIGHT'S LANDING NEWS.

HOW TO WATER PLANTS.—As a rule, water should never be given, until the further withholding of it would be detrimental to the plants. Habitual watering does, in the majority of cases, more harm than good. Plants left to battle with draught, send their roots down deep in search of moisture, and when rain does come, they benefit more by it than those that have regular watering all along. If the ground is dug deeply, and kept in good heart, plants that have once got established, will bear drouth for any length of time, but things lately planted, and that have not had time to "get hold," must keep supplied or their beauty may vanish for half the season. Succulent vegetables, too, which ought to be kept growing quick, must have abundance, and of course, plants in pots must, of necessity, have sufficient. There are two important points to be attended to in giving water: one is to expose the water to the sun before using it, to render it soft and warm, and the other is to give a thorough soaking at once, sufficient to keep the ground moist a week. Supposing the supply to be limited, but regular, the best way of economizing both water and time is to take the garden, piece by piece, watering each piece thoroughly every evening, and then begin as at first.
